

What will be accepted at the hazardous waste stores

it's time to clean
Out
your household
chemical clutter
the right way

AND IT'S FREE!

We will accept the following materials:

Flammable Gases

Acetylene, hydrogen, LP gas, aerosols

Packaging Group II

Methylated spirits, acetone, paint thinners, petrol

Packaging Group III

Kerosene, turps

Manufactured Products

Paints, adhesives

Toxic Poisonous Substances

Pesticides, herbicides, rat poison, arsenic, dieldrin, diquat, endosulfan

Corrosive Substances Packaging Group II & III

Pool acid, concrete cleaner, car batteries, muriatic acid, hydrochloric acid

Corrosive Substances Packaging Group II & III

Caustic soda, bleach, ammonia solutions, drain cleaner, liquid pool chlorine

Combustible Liquids C2

Sump oil, vegetable oils (non-solid)

What will not be accepted at the hazardous waste stores

We will not accept the following materials:

asbestos,

empty containers,

explosives,

flares,

general garbage,

green waste or recyclables,

night soil (sewage tank sludge and residues),

quarantine waste,

tyres,

chemical gas cylinders which are not identified or labelled,

evacuated electrical equipment (such as TV tubes),

infectious and medical waste, concrete and masonry (unless chemically contaminated and only in small amounts),

steel and car parts,

medicines,

mobile phones and batteries